BETHPAGE FEDERAL CREDIT UNION AIR SHOW AT JONES BEACH OFFERS COMMEMORATIVE CREDIT/DEBIT CARD

Bethpage, NY...May 22, 2008... The 5th Annual Bethpage Federal Credit Union Air Show at Jones Beach over Memorial Day weekend, May 24-25, 2008, recognizes Long Island's aviation tradition and the credit union's own founding by Grumman Aerospace employees in 1941. To commemorate this year's historic event and headliner — the U.S. Navy Blue Angels — Bethpage Federal Credit Union (Bethpage) is offering a commemorative debit card to anyone opening a Bethpage checking account at any of the Bethpage branch locations or a commemorative VISA ® credit card for new approved applicants.

“In a few years time, The Bethpage Federal Credit Union Air Show at Jones Beach has become a major event, drawing over 450,000 attendees over the two days,” said Bethpage President & CEO Kirk Kordeleski. “Over the same few years, and with membership open to all Long Islanders, Bethpage has tripled its Long Island presence by adding branches and ATMs throughout Nassau and Suffolk, increased service convenience through mobile and online banking, and has continued to provide great rates on deposits and low interest on loans.”

The commemorative VISA ® debit card is available to anyone opening a Bethpage checking account from May 24 through September 8, 2008. In addition to the debit card, the Bethpage VISA® credit card will also be available with the commemorative air show design during the same period. The credit card offers low rates, no annual fees and special rewards programs, including travel.

In addition to sponsoring the air show, Bethpage will host the U.S. Navy Blue Angels and all of the air show performers, at an evening reception at the Cradle of Aviation on Friday May 23rd. As well, in collaboration with the American Airpower Museum, there will be a display of significant historic aircraft in the collection of the American Airpower Museum on view at Republic Airport in Farmingdale, from Thursday, May 22 – Monday, May 26.

According to Bethpage Air Show spokeswoman Linda Armyn, “The Bethpage Federal Credit Union Air Show at Jones Beach is a highly intensive operation to put together and I am grateful to our employees, to the incredible talent of the regional office of the New York State Office of Parks, Recreation and Historic Preservation, to the unbelievable teams of performers, and the many thousands who come to enjoy the very best Long Island has to offer over Memorial Day weekend.”
